All members holding the American FFA Degree are entitled to wear the regulation gold emblem key.

Section B. Junior FFA, Alumni, Collegiate and Honorary Members do not have the same privileges as active members (i.e. No voting or speaking privileges) and do not count in their membership count for voting delegation.

ARTICLE VI – State, Area, District Officer Election Process

Section A. The offices of the Alamo District FFA shall be: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter and sentinel. The teacher(s) of agricultural education from the school in the Alamo District FFA officers shall be the FFA advisor(s). The advisor(s) from the school from which the district president is a member shall be the lead advisor of the student organization. District officers shall be elected annually by the members present at the spring meeting of the district that is designated for such business.

Section B. The district officers shall be elected by the district using ~~a simple majority vote of the delegation~~ the following process that includes an interview and test to determine the top two candidates for the office of president and vice president. These top two candidates will then be voted upon by the delegation using a simply majority vote.

- ~~1. The remaining candidates will be ranked by the delegation. ~~office, each school will cast 2 votes, per delegate (for two different candidates on a single ballot).~~ A ranking of all the candidates will be done by the delegates. Those candidates receiving the most points will hold the highest office. In the case of a tie vote, the candidate with the highest test score will prevail.~~
2. Delegates are required to sign their school's name on the back of the ballot for verification. Any school not following this protocol will lose their 'casted votes' (i.e. if they vote twice in one round for their own candidate/delegate or do not sign their ballot – the votes will not count). The following Campaign Guidelines will be used in the district election process:

Candidates will draw for a random candidate number and presentation order.

1. All Candidates for district office will follow an election procedure that includes: a test, an interview and vote. All candidates for district office will report for a designated testing and interview day (as designated by the executive committee). This day will be a separate day from the voting and district election day. ~~Candidates must submit the most up-to-date, completed application and district officer contract to election committee prior to the first candidate being allowed to test or interview. Candidates not providing the completed documents by the prescribed time will not be allowed to participate and/or run for office.~~
2. The election process will include a test prepared by a source outside the district (i.e. Wiegat Graphics), and an interview of a panel of three ~~judges~~ from outside the Alamo District (ex: three ag teachers from neighboring district). The top two candidates from this process will go to the delegation for a vote. The top vote getter will be president and the other candidate will be vice-president.

The remaining candidates will then be ranked by the delegation for office ~~according to majority vote~~. The order will be: Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter and Sentinel. Each delegate will receive a ballot that they will be able to rank their candidates in order of preference. ~~If all officer positions are not filled with candidates, that have gone through the election process, then a separate election will be held the day of the election to fill the remaining positions.~~

3. Alamo District Officers will include: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter and sentinel.
4. On election day all candidates will be given 2 minutes to present to the delegation as a prepared campaign speech. Once a candidate has exceeded his/her time – the district advisor will call time. No other speeches will be given by candidates.
5. Each candidate may be asked 1 question (but not required), as established by an election committee. The Alamo District Advisor's Executive Committee will establish the election committee.
6. Alamo District FFA will purchase a FFA jacket and pin for these officers and pay the Area VII Camp Fee for the district officers to attend the camp.
7. All new officers are expected to attend all District FFA functions including, but not limited to: Area VII Camp, Alamo District FFA LDE Contest, Alamo District Banquet Alamo District Meetings, and other activities established by the Alamo District Advisors' Executive Committee.
8. Alamo District Officers are expected to provide meaningful programs/activities for the Alamo District FFA under the direction of the Alamo District FFA Advisor and the Alamo District Advisors' Executive Committee.
9. Budget request for activities must be made in writing to the Alamo District Advisors' Executive Committee 3 weeks prior to the event. The Alamo District Advisors' Executive Committee may, or may approve the request based on available funds and/or district support.
10. No campaign materials will be allowed for election. Members shall not contact chapters or their members prior to Election Day for the purpose of securing their vote. State Guidelines will be enforced.
11. A District Officer Contract must have completed, signed, and filled with the Alamo District Advisor's Secretary prior to the election.

Section C. Limitations on Alamo District Officer Candidates:

1. Only two members per FFA Chapter may hold office at the district level, during the same year providing the following:
 - a. That there are not enough candidates from the district chapters present during the election process to fill the established slate of officers.
 - b. That the second candidate from a chapter may not enter the election process until the remaining chapters (within the election process) have filled the offices with their candidates. Once each school within the election process has obtained a district office, then the second candidates may enter the election process.
 - c. All candidates have properly followed all election procedures and have filed the correct ~~contracts~~ application and contract with the Alamo District Advisor's

Secretary prior to the test and interview.

2. A member may only hold a district office for no more than 2 years.

Section D. District Officers Not Fulfilling their Duties:

All Alamo District Officers not attending those activities outlined in Article VI, Section B, #7 will be removed from office, unless otherwise approved by the Alamo District Executive Committee. Those Alamo District Officers with conflicts may request to miss a district activity. This request should be done in writing with the Alamo District Advisor's President prior to the scheduled event. Since the activities of Area VII Camp, Alamo District Leadership Workshop, and Alamo District Check/Banquet are clearly a function of the officer's position, little consideration for missing these events will be given. If an officer is removed from office, the remaining officers will be moved up in office and the Alamo Executive Committee will determine what shall be done with the open district office. Furthermore all expenses incurred by the Alamo District on the behalf of that officer may be billed to that officer's school for repayment (ie. Camp, Jacket, Pin) by the Alamo District Treasurer.

Section E. The District Talent and other elected positions shall be elected under the guidelines established by the Alamo District Advisor's Executive Committee. When possible the area and state guidelines should be considered for the election process.

Section F. The Area VII Officer candidates shall be elected at the ~~spring meeting~~ Area VII convention as outlined by the Area and State Constitution, ~~designated for such business by the Alamo District Advisor's Executive Committee. Alamo District Election Process for Area will follow the Area VII Constitution~~ —

Section G. State and National Candidates will follow state guidelines.

ARTICLE VII - Dues

Section A. District dues in the Alamo District shall be fixed annually by a majority vote of the Advisors from the chapters in the Alamo District.

Section B. Full local, area, state and national dues shall be paid by all active members.

Section C. No member shall be considered as active and in good standing unless he/she pays full local, district, area, state and national FFA dues.

ARTICLE VIII - Amendments

Section A. This constitution may be amended or changed at any regular district meeting by a two-thirds vote of the official voting delegate present providing it is not in conflict with the state association constitution or that of the National FFA Organization.

Section B. Bylaws may be adapted to fit the needs of the district at any regular district meeting by a two-thirds vote of the active members present providing such bylaws do not conflict in any way with the constitution and bylaws of either the area, state or the national organization.
