- b. Each officer candidate should be prepared to demonstrate their knowledge of agriculture education, FFA, parliamentary procedure and the agriculture industry via a test. The test will be computer generated and taken on-line. The test will be generated by the Texas FFA District Officer Test Set Level One (1). In addition, a writing exercise to measure written communication skills using a prompt relevant to duties of a Revaldina district officer will be given. The state officer writing exercise rubric will be used to grade the writing exercise. The exam section shall comprise 20% of the candidate's score. The test, composed of 60 questions, shall comprise 75% of the exam section and the writing exercise 25% of the exam section, the composite of which shall be scaled to a factor of 0.2. The numerical value that is the difference between the top indexed score and the number 20 shall be added to all scores. The exam score shall be applied in each of the election rounds.
 - c. Each officer candidate will complete an interview process. A committee will conduct the interview process. The interview process will be comprised of one or more of the eight (8) interview rounds of the state officer selection process (Personal round – Introduction, One-on-One, Advocacy stand and deliver, Facilitation, Round Robin, Personal round – Conclusion). The state officer interview rubric will be used to grade the interview section. The interview section is scored on a 100-point scale and multiplied by a factor of 0.3. The numerical value that is the difference between the top indexed interview score and the number 30 shall be added to all scores.
 - d. If FFA members are utilized as interviewers during the interview process each one must be in official dress, according to the most current FFA manual, to perform his or her duties during the interview process.
4. After completion of the pre-election process each qualifying candidate should be prepared to give a speech and answer a thought question. The speech time limit will be a maximum of 3 minutes.
5. After all speeches are complete each delegate will cast 2 votes. Using the Area and State Officer spreadsheet the top four candidates will advance to the runoff.
6. The four candidates advancing to the runoff will be given the opportunity to give a runoff speech. The runoff speech time limit will be a maximum of 1 minute. After all runoff speeches are complete each delegate will cast 1 vote. Using the Area and State Officer spreadsheet the runoff candidate with the highest combined score will become the President. The runoff candidate with the second highest combined score will become the Vice-President and all other officers will be assigned by combined score on the Official State and Area Officer Election Spreadsheet.
7. Officers will assume their duties upon officer installation at the Revaldina District Banquet
8. Prior to installation, all officers must sign a contract promising to fulfill all of their duties and engage in proper behavior at all times. Failure to fulfill these duties may result in removal from office by the Executive Committee.
9. If for any reason a student office becomes vacant, the Chapter from which the vacancy occurs shall elect another student officer. If for any reason the office of President should become vacant, the student officer who received the next highest score in the election for President (Vice President) shall become President. The chapter with the vacating President shall elect another student to replace the Vice President.
10. If for any reason the Chapter with the vacating officer chooses not to elect a replacement the
